SHED Welfare Society – Donation Policy

Thank you for supporting SHED Welfare Society. Every contribution helps us continue our mission of serving communities in need.

Use of Donations

Donations may support: Free education programs, food package distribution, medical camps, clean drinking water projects, housing assistance, community welfare initiatives, and emergency response activities.

Donation Terms

• Donations are voluntary.
• Funds are used according to organizational priorities and project needs.
• Donors may contact us for general updates regarding supported activities.
• Donations received through official channels are recorded.

Refund Policy

If a donation error occurs, donors may contact SHED Welfare Society within a specified period for review according to applicable policies.

Privacy of Donors

Donor information will not be sold or shared without consent except where required by law.