SHED Welfare Society – Volunteer Policy

Volunteers are an important part of SHED Welfare Society and help us serve communities effectively.

Volunteer Expectations

• Respect beneficiaries and team members.
• Follow organizational values and guidelines.
• Maintain confidentiality where required.
• Act professionally during activities and events.
• Avoid discrimination or harmful behavior.

Safety and Conduct

Volunteers should follow safety instructions during field activities. Any misconduct may result in suspension of volunteer participation.

Equal Opportunity

SHED Welfare Society welcomes volunteers from different backgrounds who support our mission and values.

Recognition

We value the time, skills, and dedication of our volunteers and appreciate their contribution to community welfare.
